

ZoomInfo Named One of the 100 Best Medium Workplaces by Fortune Magazine and Great Place to Work®

October 17, 2019

BOSTON, MA & VANCOUVER, WA, October 17, 2019 —ZoomInfo, the global leader in Go-To-Market (GTM) intelligence solutions, today announced it has been recognized as one of the 100 Best Medium Workplaces for 2019 by Great Place to Work® and FORTUNE magazine.

“Building a company that is truly a great place to work starts with hiring the right people. This award says more about the people and the leaders we’ve chosen to surround ourselves with than any perk or compensation plan or benefit could ever say,” said Henry Schuck, CEO of ZoomInfo. “What our employees love is the opportunity to make major impacts on our company day in and day out regardless of what department they sit in or what role they have. That connection back to their importance in our overall goals is what drives all of us everyday to do better, to be better, and to define new possibilities.”

Today’s selection extends a strong track record of top workplace awards including the Puget Sound Business Journal’s “Washington’s Best Workplaces” (2019), Inc’s “Best Workplaces” (2019 and 2017), The Boston Globe’s “Top Places to Work” (2018), Seattle Business Magazine’s “Washington’s 100 Best Companies to Work For” (2017) and FORTUNE’s “Best Small & Medium Workplaces” (2017).

ZoomInfo is actively growing with openings on its sales teams in Portland (OR), Grand Rapids (MI), Bethesda (MD), Boston (MA), and Philadelphia (PA), as well as its engineering teams in both Boston (MA) and Israel.

To determine the Best Small and Medium Workplaces, Great Place to Work® analyzed feedback from an anonymous survey taken by over 189,000 U.S employees Great Place to Work-Certified™ organizations. Survey participants answered more than 60 questions rating their employer.
